 The Oldest Printer at the Case in the United States.
 Correspondence of THE BEE.
 CORNING, Iowa, August 29.—Wm.
 W. Prescott, known as "Grandpa Prescott," now setting type on The Corning Gazette, is probably the oldest printer at the case in the United States, having been a "typo" for sixty-four years, and still living by his work of ten hours a day. He began at Concord, New Hampshire, in the office of The New Hampshire Patriot.
 His son, who is also in The Gazette office, has once or twice had the father retired, and has hoped to see the evening of life prolonged in a peaceful twilight of rest, but the influence of medical advisers has overcome the promptings of filial love, and the habits of a lifetime are allowed to continue. Through the editorial chit-chat, some notice of Mr. Prescott's whereabouts and history have been mentioned in some eastern papers, and he is quite often in receipt of a half dollar and request for his photograph, which he has been obliged to have made in cabinet size to meet the demand. Although so many years have passed over his head, and he has witnessed the changes of fortune that has come to the people of this, as well as many other nations, the rise and fall of empires, and the progress and developments of the arts and inventions as applied to navigation and traffic, the approach of the impending crisis, and the restoration of peace, nationally, religiously and politically, for the larger part of a century, yet every day he warms a seat at the cases, and before many years will pass, it will be chronicled that Grandpa Prescott has "looked up his form" and awaits the "proofs."

Here too we met L. M. Wilson, who was for some time connected with the journal at Susan Bridge.
 W. H. H. Hoxie has been confined to his home on account of sickness in the family and the death of a young child. Frank & Elmanford, who have been doing a large land business here and banking at Pacific Junction, have just moved their headquarters back to Corning, although they continue the banking business there as before. The Park house seems to be the favored hotel, and is as neat and tidy as a new band-box. The streets have been graded, and new sidewalks sixteen feet wide are provided on the main streets. The lawyers are nearly all out of town attending courts in some other county, and many of the citizens are rusticated in the "Rockies," or traveling the plains, while the sharp-eyed business man is seen every day on the streets inquiring for Col. W. W. Patterson, and organizing to introduce his new building material into some distant part of the continent. The Colonel is giving much of his time to the improvement of methods of using this stone, and of adapting it to the thousand uses to which it is, and may be applied for building purposes, and for street pavements, as the cheapest and most durable pavement ever known. The Colonel is also assisting in laying the new canal at Kearney, Nebraska, and for the development of a system of water powers, and irrigation that may solve the great problem of the "dry plains," and supply, from nature, an abundance of water for a trifling sum, and thereby render much valuable land that is now deemed worthless. It is estimated that Adams county will have an average crop this fall, if the weather shall permit the corn to ripen, although corn is not what is seen along the Missouri and most of the valleys of western Iowa.
 Plenty of apples are being wagoned up from the southern part of the state and sold at a dollar a bushel, for the apple crop here is not large this season, and the political crop is very uncertain.

Rejuvenating the blood is absolutely necessary for the cure of general debility, weakness, leucorrhoea, etc. The best enricher of the blood is Brown's Iron Bitters.

A Texas Goat Ranch.
 (Gainesville Tex.) News.
 The editor of the Uvalde Hesperian has made a visit to the famous Nueces Canyon, including the Angora ranch of S. J. Arnold and brothers.
 Here the canyon widens out for a distance of seven miles—in fact, it is the widest and most beautiful spot in the canyon. These gentlemen own and control about 15,000 acres, embracing the rich valleys of Maverick creek on the west and Ranch creek on the east, which are only miniature canyons putting into the Nueces valley from either side, furnishing an abundance of grass and water the year round, and which is used as a summer range, while in Kinney county they have another ranch where they winter their sheep until after the lambing season, keeping the goats on the home ranch during the kidding season. Six years ago last July these gentlemen commenced with 875 goats and 1,400 head of sheep.
 Now they have 4,000 of the former and 8,000 of the latter. Their losses in sheep will amount to about the same in money value as their purchases, while on the goat question they are $2,000 ahead of their losses, besides their increase. During this period their losses from disease and otherwise have not been over 2 per cent on their goats. They run seven different flocks which gave steady employment to seven herders, besides a victor (who superintends the flocks), as well as extra hands to attend to other work on the ranch. In the shearing, lambing, and dipping seasons of course the number is greatly augmented. On this ranch the goats have been improved up by the best thoroughbred bloods until now the grades run from one-half to fifteensixteenths. Last spring their goat clip amounted to 1,200 pounds, which was sold in New York at an average of 40 cents. We have often heard the question asked, what profit is there in goats? In common goats the profit lies in the hides and tallow, which always command a good price, and the supply of good meat in a shape that will not spoil in warm weather before it can be used up. By using Angora aires a flock can be graded up so high that the wool is more profitable than that of sheep, where the animal itself is harder, more prolific, and less expensive.

Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney, Liver or Urinary Diseases.
 Have no fear of any of the diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even some great pulled up pretended cure.

Movement of the Great Corn Crop.
 St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
 Vice President Gault, of the Wabash system in speaking yesterday of the season of activity in traffic just opening, and the great corn crop to be moved, estimated the business to be done by the Southwestern roads, or what are known as the Omaha and Kansas City pools, at four times what it was last year. In the western part of Iowa there is a corn belt 120 miles wide, embracing the Missouri river slope, which will yield in the aggregate more corn this year than it has ever done before. Indeed, it is in that section that Iowa depends for its showing of maize, the eastern part of the state having gone more and more into dairying and grazing. The Omaha line of the Wabash passes through the heart of this corn belt, and this year it will be its first opportunity to show its real value as a contributory to the Wabash system. The crop was so light last year that the railroad carried to many points as much corn as was shipped away from them. Although the movement of the Western staple is yet in the future, the promise of the crop is such that in all branches of traffic an increase is noted. Mr. Gault said he had recently talked with Western merchants, from Kansas City and other points, and all commented on the rapid increase of orders as compared with the dullness of twelve months ago. The Wabash is already feeling the impetus.
 The earnings are $500,000 a week, with 1,000 miles of road through a country where the movement of the corn crop is the great item of traffic.
 That portion of the system is now contributing comparatively little, but will very materially add to the revenue a few weeks hence. The Wabash, upon the absorption of various branches and feeders within the past two years, has increased its equipment to the maximum. Indeed, in dull times it is able to loan from its stock. A year ago or so some thirty new locomotives were added to the motive power, and ten of these have been in service on the Iron Mountain railroad for some time. All the stock is now being gathered in and preparations made for meeting the largest demand yet made on the system.

 Josh Billings says: "There ain't no pi in natral history that has been et more, and that more oft than apple pi, and no medican can cure indigestion and biliousness half as well as Squire Bileston." Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

Applies for Export.
 American Agriculturist for September.
 From reliable sources we learn that the apple crop will be very poor in England this year, and not over-abundant on the continent of Europe. A short crop in England means a demand for American fruit to the profit, is not of our orchardists, at least to our shippers. In former years American apples have met with a ready sale at paying prices in England, but within the last two or three years the trade has been less profitable. It is the old story over again, that good fruit in good condition brings good prices. Two years ago, taking advantage of the unusual scarcity abroad, parties sent over large quantities of apples without regard to their quality or condition. As a consequence this fruit in Covent Garden market, as it would have been in Washington market, was left on the dealers' hands. Hundreds of barrels did not bring the cost of the freight and American apples fell into disfavor. The same course, if followed in this year, will result in a similar result. Only the best fruit packed in the best manner will pay in England as at home. The English received their first impressions of American apples from the Newtown Pippin, which several years ago was the "only kind sent abroad, and was in demand there however large their own crop of fruit might be. But this variety is far from abundant, and others have been forwarded of late years.
 The B. W. Greening, Spitzenberg, Northern Spy, King of Tompkins county, have sold well when good of their kind. The reckless practice of "topping" has injured the reputation of our fruit, so at present it is not bought by the appearance of the top layer, but the contents of the barrel are poured out for the inspection of the purchaser. Properly managed the export of apples will be very profitable, and we hope that some method may be devised by which a share of the profits may reach the grower of the fruit.

Debilitated persons, and sufferers from wasting diseases such as consumption, scrofula, kidney affections, and the greatly benefited by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

JONES WAS MAD.
 Conkling's Rudeness to the Misses Jones Cause of the New York Times' Hostility.

Washington special: The bitter attack of The New York Times on ex-Senator Conkling, in an article entitled "Jay Gould's Man," revives a story once current here in Washington, which explains the hostility of The Times to Conkling. Several years ago George Jones, the proprietor of The Times, was on his way the national capital with his daughters, and Conkling was a passenger on the same train. Jones was a warm personal friend and admirer of Conkling, and had utilized every opportunity to say kind words about him in his paper. Conkling during the journey from New York to Washington passed through the car in which Jones and his daughters were. Conkling stopped a moment to speak to Jones and Jones seized the opportunity to introduce him to his daughters. Con-kling barely recognized the introduction, and without speaking a word to the young ladies passed to another car.
 Jones was mad, so mad, indeed, that he could scarcely give utterance to his anger. There was no room for any indignation. They were not particularly noted for their beauty, but they were fine looking and stylish.

and had the reputation of being very amiable and remarkably bright. Jones said to Tom Murphy, the noted New York politician, who was a spectator of the scene, that Conkling's manner amounted to unpardonable rudeness and that the time would come when Conkling would regret it. Murphy went into the car where Conkling was and endeavored to induce him to go and make amends for his ungracious conduct, but Conkling was too proud to admit that he had done anything amiss. From that time to the present the Times has lost no chance to assail Conkling.
 When Conkling had his Canonchet trouble and was driven off the Sprague premises by Sprague with a shotgun, all the other New York papers suppressed the story the next day except The Times. Conkling knew better than to ask a favor of Jones. He knew that the story was to be published in the Times, and he was so anxious about it that he waited until 3 o'clock in the morning to get proof slips of it from The Times office, which were brought to him by a friend. It is probable that Conkling has wished many times that he had been more gracious to the Jones guild.

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic is, Brown's Iron Bitters.
